Whom do you call Lord?

During Jesus' public life, he called his disciples. Out of them, he chose 12 men as his apostles.

He also had 72 other men who were called disciples. How did he call his men?

There are couple stories of the apostles who left their families and followed Jesus. We try to look into the way of their calls to discover the way how Jesus called his disciples.

First of all, John and Andrew who were the disciples of St. John the Baptist. When John the Baptist introduced Jesus by saying "this is the lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world". John and Andrew went after the Lord, they stayed with Him for a night, then they went home. Andrew later talked to Peter and John talked to James. The Lord one day passed by where they worked. He called these 2 pairs, and they left their fathers, their fellow workers and followed him at once.

When Jesus passed by the tax post, he called Levi, later became Matthew, He called him, and he left his post and followed Jesus.

When he called Nathaniel, he praised him as a good and just man, Nathaniel was impressed and followed him at once.

In the gospel today, there are 3 cases that the Lord refused to call:

A man wanted to follow him but when Jesus said that he has nowhere to rest his head. He does not want to follow Jesus anymore.

Another man wanted to go home to bury his father first, he was refused by the Lord.

Another man wanted to go to say farewell to his family at home first, he also was not accepted by the Lord.

It seems that the Lord only wants to call those who don't hesitate to follow him. In following Jesus, the disciples did not know what happens for their future. In our Church today, the Lord seems to tell us that he wants to call those who dare to trust him totally, those who dare to follow Him without reservation and hesitation, those who are so generous and selfless to the Lord.

Let us pray for many young men and women who dare to work in the garden of God.

In many parishes, there is a custom that someone may donate for the cost of Bread and Wine with their intention. It was suggested to me that the donation is about $20.00 per week. If you want to donate to parish, please call Agnes (215) 727-8300.

Since many of our parishioners do not register in the parish, and when they go to the church, they put their collection either without envelope or with envelope but without address. Therefore we cannot credit them for tax purpose at the end of the year.

So, we leave REGISTRATION FORM ON THE TABLE IN THE VESTIBULE. You can use it and fill out the registration form. Do not forget to give PHONE NUMBER so if we need more information, we can call you.
