CALLED BY GOD

Today's scriptures invite us to listen to two calls. The first is the call issued by the LORD to the prophet Amos, the "shepherd and a dresser of sycamores" (Amos 7:14). The second is the call the Lord Jesus issued to the Twelve, whom he sent out "two by two" (Mark 6:7). These faithful people responded to the call, prophesying and preaching to the people to whom they had been sent. Each of us received a call when we were baptized. The second reading invites us to ponder that call as we are reminded that we are chosen in Christ and that, in love, God "destined us for adoption" (Ephesians 1:5). As adopted daughters and sons of God we are called to bring the presence of Christ into our marriages, families, schools, and places of work. Let us be inspired today to say yes to the call we hear once again through God's living word.

UNITED IN FAITH

I send you to baptize.

Today the gospel tells us that Jesus sent his disciples out, pair by pair, to heal the sick, to anoint the people, and to proclaim that the Kingdom of God is at hand. Following his instruction, they went off and preached repentance. The Lord came after them to meet the people.

After the resurrection, Jesus appeared to his disciples to confirm to them who he is. They came to believe. One of them, Thomas, seeing his hand and his nail marks, said to the Lord, "My Lord and My God." Thomas is the first man on earth declares that Jesus is God while others may call Him, Lord or master. At the Lord's command, they gathered together in the Mount of Olive with about 500 other people. Before ascending to Heaven, he commissioned them: "Full authority both in Heaven and on earth, has been given to me, go therefore, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, whoever does not believe will be condemned.

In the Pentecost, St. Peter and his friends preached the good news to the people and 3,000 people were added to the Church. The Catholic Church was born that day. The Church continues her mission throughout the centuries, and today the Catholic Church is present in almost all nations of the world.

The call to be an evangelizer is a gift. God calls us to be holy and to be saved. God also calls many workers in different ways of life to bring his gospel to others.

If God needs you, will you say yes and give him a hand?

Fr. Quinn
