Additional Bible Study groups are available for men and women, women only, high school students and young adults that meet at different times of the day or evening during the week and on Saturdays. Select a study that requires no home preparation or one that offers daily reading and questions for reflection. This is an excellent way to get to know other parishioners and deepen your faith. There will be an opportunity to sign up for a group after every Mass this weekend and March 5 & 6.

Stop by the sign-up table in the gathering area as you leave Mass today to join a group!

OPEN AUDITIONS FOR THE CHOIR

Experience the joy and art of singing in the Adult Choir of St. David the King Church!

The choir is in session September through June, but we welcome new and returning singers to join us as we prepare for Easter. Rehearsals are Wed. evenings 8 pm- 9:15 PM and Sunday mornings 9:45 - 10:00 AM. The group sings each Sunday for the 10 AM Mass as well as for a few other events during the year.

The repertoire is varied and some of the music is unaccompanied, often from the Renaissance. The group is approximately 19 members at this time with a fairly high level of proficiency. The music program and choir at St. David the King Church strive to be a diverse, welcoming and appreciative Christ-like community.

Interested singers should contact Carol Baraniecki Sullivan, Director of Music at 275-7111 ext. 320 to set up an audition, or just meet her at the organ after any weekend Mass. Experience singing in a choir preferred but not necessary. Sopranos and Basses especially needed.

DON'T BE ANXIOUS

People have, it seems, a natural penchant for misplaced emphasis on important things. They can easily get caught up with what they're having for dinner or what they will wear.

Often it is a tragedy that helps people to refocus on what is really important. What I shall wear is an irrelevant question when I am facing surgery or chemotherapy. What's for dinner is immaterial to those living through grief or unemployment.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us not to worry. He doesn't say, "Don't eat. Don't cook. Don't buy clothes." He says, "Don't worry." Jesus asks us not to relinquish our responsibilities but to let go of our anxiety. Anxiety betrays a lack of trust and Jesus reminds us that "Your heavenly Father knows" all that you need (Matthew 6:32).

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEKEND'S MASS

First Reading: Deuteronomy 11:18,26-28, 32

Second Reading: Romans 3:21-25, 28

Gospel: Matthew 7:21-27

Try reading these scripture passages this week.
What word or phrase of God's Word speaks to you?

Listen attentively as they are read at Mass next weekend.
*Does another word or phrase touch your heart?
 What is God saying to you?*

LENTEN BIBLE STUDY GROUPS

Sign up for one of the six-week Bible Study groups at St. David the King by contacting Dorothy Soi at 275-3837 or dtkBibleStudies@aol.com. This is a wonderful way to grow in your faith and meet other parishioners!

REASONS TO STUDY THE BIBLE

- To address the apostolic exhortation, Verbum Domini, by Pope Benedict XVI, for the flowering of “a new season of greater love for sacred Scripture on the part of every member of the People of God, so that their prayerful and faith-filled reading of the Bible will, with time, deepen their personal relationship with Jesus.”
- To adhere to The Catechism of the Catholic Church (Second Edition): “The Church forcefully and specifically exhorts all the Christian faithful . . . to learn the surpassing knowledge of Jesus Christ, by frequent reading of the divine scriptures. Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ.” #133
- To be in accord with Pope Paul VI’s encyclical Evangelii Nuntiandi: On Evangelism in the Modern World, “Those who are already disciples of Jesus Christ... [need] to be constantly nourished by the Word of God so that they may grow in their Christian life.”
- To obey our Lord Jesus Christ who said, “Man does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.” (Matthew 4:3-5)

THE IMPACT OF BIBLE STUDY ON GROUP MEMBERS

I'd been yearning to study the Bible with others for many years after trying to read it on my own and just not feeling fulfilled. Bible Study has had a great impact on my life, and I am so grateful for this opportunity. One recent study helped me to understand God's faithfulness and protection not only for the people in the stories, but for us today. I hear how God works in the lives of others as I listen to their faith sharing. How good to know God is alive and working in us today! Studying the Bible helps me to recognize God in my life and listen for Him. I am getting so much out of Bible study that I now attend two Bible Study groups each week!

Cindy Sosa

Bible Study is a way to commit myself to time with God. Gathering with friends to read Scripture helps me to slow down the pace of my busy day. It helps me to refocus on my priorities in life and to evaluate whether my actions reflect my beliefs. I have found Bible Study to be a blessing.
