Parish News and Upcoming Events

Part-time Job Opening Here

St. Mark's Church, Sea Girt, is seeking an experienced and reliable part-time maintenance/ janitorial person to maintain church/rectory. Duties include identifying and performing needed repairs, basic maintenance tasks and working with contractors. Some knowledge of heating/air conditioning systems preferred. Flexible hours. Must be able to lift heavy objects. To apply, contact Msgr. Flynn at 732-449-6364.

Scholarship for Catholic HS Freshmen

Once again, the pastor is pleased to announce the offering of the Lorette E. Jordan scholarship which recognizes the achievements of first-time freshmen who will be attending a Catholic high school in the fall. Application forms are available in the rectory. To qualify for the $1,000 scholarship, the freshman's family must be registered parishioners of St. Mark's, the student must be an incoming freshman at a Catholic high school and must have volunteered in some way at St. Mark's. The scholarship application form provides further details about writing a short essay and providing your academic accomplishments. Please submit your application to the rectory no later than Friday, May 30th.

Procession with the Book of the Gospel

Msgr. Flynn and St. Mark's Liturgy Committee have reinstated the procession to the altar with the Book of the Gospels at the beginning of Mass. The procession may be led by the thurifer with burning incense, if incense is used. It is followed by altar servers who carry lighted candles, and between them the Cross. Next is the Reader* who carries the Book of the Gospels, which should be slightly elevated, followed by the priest who is to celebrate the Mass. Although the whole Bible is God's Word, all liturgical traditions accord special treatment to the Gospels. When the procession arrives at the altar, the Book of the Gospels is placed upon the altar before use, carried between candles, its reading or singing is reserved to the ordained, and all stand while it is being read.

If a deacon is present, he should carry the Book of the Gospels.*
