

There is an order in the universe which must be respected, and...the human person, endowed with the capability of choosing freely, has a grave responsibility to preserve this order for the well-being of future generations.

(Pope John Paul II quoted in Climate Change and Catholic Social Teaching, USCCB, 2001)

You are invited to A Workshop on Caring for God's Creation

Saturday, March 27th

9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon

at

St. John the Evangelist Church

(Lower Church)

29 North Washington Avenue

Bergenfield

Presenter: Kay Furlani Archdiocesan Office of Human Concerns

In this workshop we will:

...reflect upon the interconnectedness of the both human well-being and the well being of the entire community of God's creation

...explore some practical steps we can take as individuals and as a Community of faith to be better stewards of God's creation.

For more information
call St. John's Rectory
201-384-0101

Sponsored by the New Energies Partnership of St. Mary's in Dumont, St. John's in Bergenfield, and Ascension in New Milford